Praise for 'Where the Hell is God?'

"This brilliant work by a gifted priest is one of the best books you will ever read on the question of suffering. Richard Leonard, is a Jesuit priest and author whose family has known intense suffering. Wise, insightful, pastoral, original, experienced and never settling for easy answers, Father Leonard is the compassionate guide that all of us wish we had in times of pain."

-James Martin, SJ, author of The Jesuit Guide to Almost Everything.

"Where the hell is God?" is a page turner. Moved by the terrible accident that left his beloved sister a quadriplegic, Richard Leonard tackles some of the hardest questions such suffering raises. You will cringe when you realise what some of these "answers" imply about God. Every chapter forces you to reassess your image of God. God must be very happy with his friend, Richard, and his attempt to understand and embrace him. Read this book; it could change your life.

- William A. Barry, SJ, author of Spiritual Direction and the Encounter with God.
